

Using your remote with your Digital Frame

The IR port ("Infrared Receiver") is located on the side of the frame.

Looks like a long transparent slot. It's usually located under the USB port.

The IR port picks up the remote signal. It must be direct line of sight with the remote.

Best operation is about 1 foot away.

IR port detail

